SHIRLEY ROSSMORE WINS FIRST TIME OUT AT THE FAIR GROUNDS.

Heavily Backed Everywhere-Feature Goes to Beau Brummel-Five Favorites Win -Martin's Best Ride of Season.

New Orleans, La., January 21.—The Crescent City Jockey Club began its third period of racing at the Fair Grounds this afternoon under conditions that could not have been improved on. The weather was slightly winterish, a needed change. Thirtyeight bookmakers, a good number for this course. did a fair amount of business. Five of the seven winners were favorites. Beau Brummel took the feature race in handy style, the showing of Besterling, which finished second, aroused keen interest. In the early stages Besterling was a distant trailer, but after a half mile he began moving up with great speed and in the final drive got up in the last stride to secure second place from Missouri

J. C. Milam uncovered what appears the best two-year-old in this section of the country when he sent to the post Shirley Rossmore. Milam was so sanguine of her victory that he wired his friends all over the country to have a good bet on her. L. B. Sire, of theatrical fame, left here last week for New York with the intention of placing a $10,000 commission on her and Milam wired him yesterday to bet as much more as he could. It was just a question of her getting away from the post by how far she would win. Austin, her rider, took matters easily and elected to win by a length and a half, Dew of Dawn, the extreme outsider, finishing second Lady Ellison's victory in the closing race was largely due to the energetic ride she got from J Martin. At no time this winter has Martin pu up a stronger or better finish.

Fantastic, the shortest priced winner of the after-oon, was favored by good racing luck. In addition to piloting Fantastic, J. Hennessy also won of Campaigner. He drew a suspension of six days from the starter, while on Campaigner, for disobediene at the post. Jockey Lloyd also brought home pair of winners, riding Boserrian and Flavigny.

The rule which became operative today limiting the fields to twelve starters in all races up to three quarters of a mile caused less crowding and fur nished good contests. There will be seven race

Jockeys Beckman and R. Lowe were each fined 25 by the starter for disobedience at the post.

H. McCarren Jr., has applied for sixteen stalls a Oaklawn where he intends to ship his horses shortly

LORD STANHOPE TRIMS SAN ALVISO

Crowd at Ascot Park Cheers at the Exciting Finish-Mandarin a Good Thing.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 21.—The finish between Lord Stanhope and San Alviso was of the sensationa order, the former winning in the last stride in deseprate drive and amid much cheering. Mandarin well backed by the wiseacres, made good in the las race, defeating his company in handy fashion.

Among the latest arrivals are William Shields Alexander Shields, John Considine, M. K. Kettleman and John Carr. Jockey Coane was set down fo three days by starter Dwyer for breaking up starts following horses in the stable of J. P. Atkin will be sold by auction in the paddock next Satur day: Reservation, J. R. Laughrey, Toots Mook Prolific, George E. Milner, Josie S., Sir Caruthers Lord of the Forest, Phil Igoe and Charles L. Stone

BALDWIN CHANGES TRACK PLANS.

"E. J. 'Lucky' Baldwin has changed the plans of his Arcadia racing plant somewhat and this change involves a resurvey of the track and a consequent change in the specifications for the us of the contractors who will build the new track says the Los Angeles News. "It is now the intention of Mr. Baldwin to make the track a mile and an eighth oval, which will give him a three-quarter mile straightaway from the upper turn past the grandstand and clubhouse, giving every one present at a race a full view of the start and finish in all

MILLER TO RIDE FOR KEENE.

New York, January 21.-James R. Keene, it is announced, has secured second call on the services of jockey Walter Miller for the season of 1907 at the local tracks. The Newcastle Stable retains first call and the boy's engagements will be made by trainer Tom Welch.

MOUNTAIN IN BAD SHAPE.

New Orleans, La., January 21 .- An X ray examinshowed jockey Mountain's injuries to consist of a double fracture of his left forearm and a broken thumb on his right hand. They will keep him out of the saddle for at least five weeks.

CITY PARK RACING STATISTICS.

During the twenty-four days embracing the first and second periods of the winter meeting at City track in New Orleans, 157 races were run, twelve of them steeplechases, for which a total of $91,733 was distributed in stakes and purses. This money went to 133 owners, forty-eight of whom won $500 or more each, with Edward Corrigan at the

WAR ON THE POOLROOMS CONTINUES.

Such Rows Do Not Help Racing Particularly When the Agitators Are at Work.

Hot Springs, Ark., January 21.—The fight between poolroom proprietors operating outside the city limits and Sheriff Williams continued in court today with a temporary victory for Mike Toomey, representing Cincinnati poolroom interests, who was granted by Chancellor Curl a restraining order which will permit odds to be posted and bets accepted on results of races at the winter Williams closed Toomey's place last week under threat of tearing the building down. He was armed with warrants charging Toomey and others with "maintaining a nuisance." The case will be fought out in the courts. Meantime the action of the poolroom men causes much unfavorable comment among horsemen mobolizing here for the Oaklawn meeting, as a hostile racetrack bill is pending in the legislature

BLONDY SAVES THE TALENT.

FOLLOWERS OF FAVORITES HAVE A TOUGH DAY AT OAKLAND.

Miller Does Some More Rough Riding-Iras and Captain Burnett Winning Long Shots-Track Drying Out.

Oakland, Cal., January 21 .- Ideal weather conditions prevailed at Oakland today. The card was attractive and the attendance was unusually large. Thirty-five layers occupied positions in the blg ring and betting was remarkably brisk. Two pronounced upsets in the fourth and fifth marked the day's rac-The pace in these races was hopelessly inefficient. The infant riders Kirschbaum and Buxton rode the outsiders Iras and Captain Burnett to victory respectively. In each instance Walter Miller rode the runner-up. In the fourth, on the heavily backed odds-on favorite Lazell and then on Invader, the receding favorite. The public had a disastrous day from a speculative viewpoint, five favorites were beaten, and the odds about Blondy, the only winning first choice, were prohibitive. Some of the biggest plunging seen this season was in evidence on this race. It took Miller's best efforts to land the Jennings colt in front by a nose and a great sigh of relief went up from his throng of anxious backers. The extraordinary improvement shown by Hedgethorn was everywhere remarked upon.

McIntyre, the rider of the favorite, Bonheur, in the introductory sprint for two-year-olds, was "roughed" all over the course by Miller on Altadice and sustained an unlucky defeat. The aggrieved jockey lodged a claim of foul, which the stewards after brief deliberation dismissed.

The track is drying out rapidly and should he at

BELVIDERE ELEVENTH IN SIRE LIST.

Through the remarkable achievements of Thoma Hitchcock, Jr's gelding Salvidere, Mr. James Galway's Belvidere is one of the leading twenty stal-lions in America for 1906. Belvidere is now twentythree years old and will make the season of 1907 at Mr. J. B. Viley's Stonewall Stud, near Midway, Ky., Mr. Galway having transferred his mares to that place from the Preakness Stud in New Jersey. This year he will serve a few approved mares aside from those of his owner at a fee of $150. Belvidere is a full brother to Sir Dixon, being by Billet, out of Jaconet, by Leamington and was bred by Colonel E. F. Clay at the Runnymede Stud near Paris, Ky. He was sold as a yearling to Milton H. Sanford, then the owner of the Preakness Stable, in whose colors he was raced for four seasons, being retired to the stud in the spring of 1890.

As a two-year-old Belvidere started in eight races and won one, the Red Bank Stakes at Monmouth Park, in which he beat, Puzzle a short head. As a hree-year-old in 1887, he won two races out of fifteen starts. In a free handicap at Monmouth Park he defeated Pontico and Eurus and at Sheepshead Bay he easily won the Reapers Stakes from Roi d'Or and Goliah. As a four-year-old he was one of the best handicap horses of 1888. He won nine races in twenty starts, five of them in succession. He began this sequence with a victory in a handicap at Gravesend, then took the Van Cortlandt Stakes and two days later won the Fordham Handicap, then a handicap sweepstakes, and finally the Westchester Handicap, all at Jerome Park. His next victory was in a handicap sweepstakes at Sheepshead Bay. His next triumph was in Long Branch Handicap at Monmouth Park, in which he licked Elkwood, Kingston, Favor, Eurus, and others. His next success was in a free handicap at Monmouth Park, and his last victory was in the Delaware Handicap when Garrison brought him home three parts of a length in front of Eurus. As a five-year-old he ran only two races. In the first, handicap at Gravesend, he was second to Panama, and in the other he was unplaced. Following is the record of the performances of his get in 1906: BELVIDERE, b. h. (1884), by Billet-Jaconet, by Winner—Ch. f, by St. Avonicus—Ray of Gold (trained by J. F. Clifford).

Went to post at 2:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving second and third the same.

Santa Ray, from a good outside start, quickly established a good lead and easily held sway until in the final sixteenth, where she tired and just lasted long enough. Edith James broke slowly and was shuffled back, but moved up rapidly on the outside on the last turn and, finishing fast, just failed to get up. Alice Cary was inadequately handled and shuffled back at the start, but finished well. Cloche d'Or, away poorly, made up ground steadily and was going like a cyclone at the end. Early Hours showed early speed, but dropped out of forward contention on the far turn. Elba was prominent for five furlongs. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Winner—B. g, by Rubicon—Miss Reel (trained by J. McCarthy).

Went to post at 3:24. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Wen driving; second and third the same. Captain Burnett trailed to the half, then closed up like a shot, caught the leaders tiring at the end and won going away. Invader, difficult to ride, tried to bear out on the turns and, after being restrained for six furlongs, finished well, but swerving clear across the track. Wenrick ran in forward contention throughout and was particularly favored by the going. Ed Sheridan was prominent all the way, but was shuffled back repeatedly and finished close up under a bad ride. Watte Nicht was well up on sufferance, the pace being slow. Dolinda, away poorly and carried wide on the first turn, closed a big middle gap and took the lead on the last turn, but quit badly in the stretch and was palpably short. Talamund quit badly. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Incorrect weight in entries—Ed Sheridan, 102.

Winner—Ch. c, by Ingoldsby—Hifalutin (trained by W. B. Jennings).

Went to post at 3:54. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Blondy broke on the inside and was shuffled back, but gained rapidly in the last half and got up in the last stride of a terrific stretch drive. Hedgethorn broke slewly, but closed up rapidly on the outside with clear sailing, then came through on the inside in the stretch and drew out like the winner in the last sixtenth, but succumbed in the last stride. The Borgian, from a flying start, alternately set and forced the pace with Lord of the Vale to the stretch, then quit badly and swerved to the inside beavy going. Instructor was well up for five furlongs and tired in the last quarter. Lord of the Vale established a small lead on the last turn and quit in the last quarter, but is coming around and will be very dangerous bere-Scratched—(66542) Dollie Dollars, 92: 66449 Wen Lage, 100, 20507 El Aventual and the start of the stretch of the st

Winner—Ch. f, by Bendoran—Tardy (trained by J. C. Milam).

Went to post at 2:27. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Shirley Rossmore, evidently a good filly, broke well in her stride and, taking a long lead at once, won all the way and had plenty in reserve at the end. Dew of Dawn ran impressively and finished fast despite an effort to bore out in the last quarter. Rubywick had no mishaps and finished with a rush after standing a hard drive for the first quarter. Bitterly came from a long way back in the last furlong and may be a good coit. Winola had no mishaps. Princess Sue ran poorly. Balolee was away too poorly to cut any figure in the result. Hazel M. had scant chance with a poor rider and interference she suffered from.

Winner—Br. f, by Galore—Phantom Belle (trained by F. Burlew).

Went to post at 2:56. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving; third the same. Fantastic, lucky throughout and saving much groud when turning into the stretch, finished with a rush through the last quarter and won drawing away. Mortiboy helped to force the pace in the early stages, but went wide into the stretch and barely outlasted Dargim. The latter was taken extremely wide into the stretch, thereby losing much ground, but finished fast and might have won if better handled. Kohinoor, away running, was right there throughout and held on well in the final drive. Ralbert tired after going a half and was eased up in the last furlong. Western had a rough trip and can do better.

Went to post at 3:18. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Beau Brummel, showing steady improvement and favored by his light weight, set a fast pace after going a quarter and, racing Missouri Lad into subjection before reaching the stretch turn, came away and won eased up through the final furlong. Besterling, badly outpaced from the start, stood a hard drive in the last half and, gaining steadily through the stretch, got up in the final stride for second place. Missouri Lad was a forward contender for the first three-quarters, but tired slightly and, being poocly handled in the last few strides, was unlucky to lose second place. Schoolmate was outpaced all the way and beaten off.

I gave but two occasionals last week: Royal Breeze, scratched, and Rebel Queen, 3 to 1, won. I have had all kinds of information, but they have got to "show me" before I recommend the horses to you, and I think you will agree with me that it is better to be conservative and play a waiting game. You may hear from me today. Tomorrow I will put a 10-1 shot over as sure as my name's Otis. You know by this time that I do not
